Notes:

- 1 This table shows the full-time faculty teaching status for “subjects deemed important in terms of education (important subjects)” as specified in Article 10-1 of the Standards for Establishing Universities.
- 2 As a general rule, enter data at the department level.
- 3 Applies to all subjects offered under the curriculum, regardless of whether those subjects have registered students.
- 4 For “Subjects Taught by Full-Time Faculty,” also include concurrently taught subjects by full-time faculty members in other colleges, graduate schools, or other undergraduate education organizations where the full-time faculty members have teaching responsibilities, etc.
- 5 Enter the “Education Category” in accordance with the categories set by the university.

- 6 In the "All Offered Courses" field, enter the total for all courses such as "Required Subjects," "Required Elective Subjects," as well as "Elective Subjects" and "Optional Subjects." This field does not represent the total of "Required Courses" and "Required Elective Subjects."
- 7 If the university adopts a semester or quarter system, enter the data on a full-year basis.
- 8 If a subject for which only one class is offered is taught by several faculty members, enter a number that reflects the proportion of full-time and part-time faculty members.
 Example 1: If the class is taught by four full-time faculty members and one part-time faculty member, the number of subjects taught by full-time faculty members is 0.8, and the number of subjects taught by part-time faculty members 0.2.
 Example 2: If the class is taught by only five part-time faculty members, the number of subjects taught by part-time faculty members is 1.0.
- 9 For subjects offered as several classes, the calculation method is as follows.
 (1) If only one faculty member teaches the classes: If a full-time faculty member teaches the classes, the number of subjects taught by full-time faculty members is 1.0; if a part-time faculty member teaches the classes, the number of subjects taught by part-time faculty members is 1.0.
 (2) If several faculty members teach the classes, enter a number that reflects the proportion of full-time and part-time faculty members. For example, if all classes are taught by full-time faculty members, the number of subjects taught by full-time faculty members is 1.0; if classes are taught by one full-time and one part-time faculty member, the number of subjects taught by full-time faculty members is 0.5 and the number of subjects taught by part-time faculty members 0.5.

[Notes by the university]

This table was prepared based on AY2017 data on subjects taught (records of lectures generated from April AY2018) (AY2011 curriculum subjects).
