

Hotel Granvia Kyoto – Halal Service in the Hotel Industry

Hotel Granvia Kyoto, Overseas Marketing
Director Shiho IKEUCHI

The Hotel Granvia Kyoto is the first hotel in western Japan to gain the official Local Halal certificate. It provides Muslim-friendly ‘omotenashi’ service attracting wealthy Muslim guests. This seminar will introduce Kyoto-style hotel service for Muslim guests.

Hotel Granvia Kyoto
Overseas Marketing
Director Shiho IKEUCHI

Hotel Granvia Kyoto

Prayer room setting

Halal Japanese Kaiseki

RCMA Research Project – Interim Report

The Research Center for Muslim Affairs provides subsidies for research on the following themes.

- *A Study of Support for Schoolchildren with Limited Japanese Language Proficiency
- *Investigation on Musharaka Credit Risk Management in Indonesian Islamic Banks
- *Islamic Microfinance as a Tool for Poverty Alleviation: The Case of Bangladesh and Indonesia
- *Exploration of a Social Enterprising Business Opportunity for the Creation of a Circular Economy through Cooperation with Muslim Society
- *The Current Situation of Multicultural Symbiosis in APU and Beppu.

Some research teams will present their interim reports on the above themes.

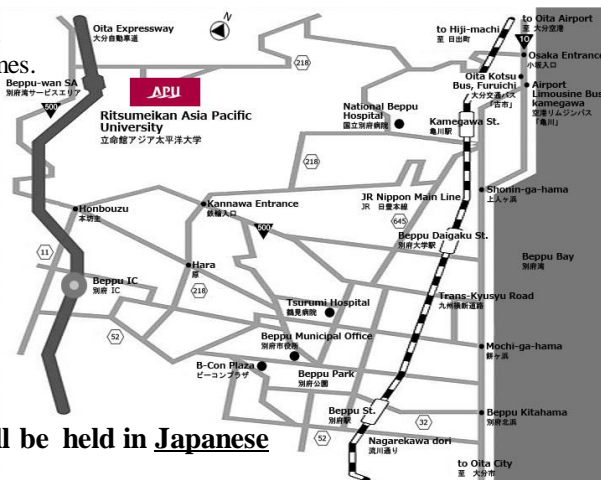

Date: June 8, 2016 (Wed.) 13:00-16:30

Seminar by Hotel Granvia Kyoto 13:00-14:30

Research Project Report 14:45-16:30

Venue: H101 (Building H, 1F)
Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University
1-1 Jumonjibaru, Beppu, Oita 874-8577 Japan

Free admission, No appointment necessary. This seminar will be held in Japanese

Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University

Sponsored by INSPIRE

Research Center for Muslim Affairs

RCMA SEMINAR